Address of Shooting Range: 6020 Innsbruck, Eggenwaldweg 60

Final entry form: send back before Sunday, 04th of January 2027

Contact address: all mails to: christian.kramer@schuetzenbund.at

Two main prizes will be awarded: an LG500 XP Bte² for the air rifle competition and an LP500-M XP Expert for the air pistol competition.

The main prizes will be won by the shooters who achieve the highest percentage performance, based on their qualification score, relative to the official world record for their class.

Eligible to participate is open to all shooters in the Men's, Women's, Junior Men's, and Junior Women's classes who compete in the 60shot program.

Each shooter may complete a maximum of two rounds; the better score will count. If Junior Men or Junior Women compete in the Men's or Women's classes, the world record for the Men's or Women's class will apply.

In the event of a tie, the ISSF rules shall apply.

Entitlement to a prize is independent of age or nationality. The transfer of any prize shall be subject to full compliance with all applicable laws, including those concerning firearms, customs, and, where relevant, export regulations. Any associated costs (transport, customs duties, etc.) bears the winner.

The reference date for the applicable world record is January 1, 2027.

Preliminary program:

22.01.2027	11:00 – 19:00	Arrival and free training
Friday	17:00	Technical meeting
